

Guide tour Participant Consent Form

In this guided tour, you will enjoy activities while avoiding potential risks by following the decisions and instructions given by the guides. However, unforeseen accidents can occur in the natural environment even though full precautions are taken. Therefore, an agreement and declaration (consent) to the following conditions are required to join the tour.

I hereby declare the following upon joining the guided tour organized by 216WORKS.

1. I am joining the tour organized by 216WORKS at my own will.
2. I understand the tour takes place in the natural environment and it could be associated with danger and the risk of unforeseen accidents. I understand and will follow the safety instructions given by the guide. I will not hold 216WORKS responsible for any physical or mental damages caused by not following the guide's instruction.
3. In the event that emergency transportation is required for any reason during the tour, I agree to be transported to the medical institution chosen by 216WORKS and receive first-aid and medical treatments.
4. I am healthy today.
5. I will not disclose today's tour route on social media which enables random people to recognize the location, or I will not share such information with other people.
